

Resume

About Me

Versatile & detail-oriented urban planning graduate student at the University of Illinois – Chicago with experience in sustainability policy, active transportation planning, and energy-efficient housing. Seeking positions that will utilize my database management, GIS, and analytical skills to plan and implement sustainability programs. Former AmeriCorps member currently employed as a research assistant at the Voorhees Center for Community and Neighborhood Improvement.